

P
I
A
Y

Memory Games

Click two cards and see if they match! <https://wordwall.net/resource/67076982/handas-surprise>

For more of a challenge, match the animal with the fruit they took in the story! <https://matchthememory.com/handassurprise>

R
E
A
D

Handa and her friend Akeyo go on another adventure in Handa's Hen. This book is also available in the ASL RAPP collection. Check it out!

Joke Alert

How do you make a tissue dance?
Put a little boogie into it!

Can you dance with a tissue on your head?
Catch it before it falls! Find other movement ideas here: <https://www.pbs.org/parents/get-moving>

M
A
K
E

Have you tried any of the fruits that Handa has in her basket? When children help prepare food, they may be more willing to try it.

Fruit Kebabs

<https://www.healthylittlefoodies.com/fruit-kebabs/>

Grocery shopping with ASL

<https://www.youtube.com/watch/T9I08cg1FLM&list=UULFM4-Hmob6JW4qew38dwll6A&index=18>

L
E
A
R
N

Lots of printable activities are available here: <https://speak-and-play-english.com/handa-s-surprise-printable-activities-and-worksheets>

Guess what's missing?

Put a few toys on the table (increase the number for more of a challenge). Have your child cover their eyes while you take one toy away. Can they guess which one is missing?

S
I
G
N

Make reading together a positive experience

Regardless of how much ASL you are able to use while you are reading with your child, what is more important is the bond you are building during the shared reading experience. If you act out the story and your child is engaged and having fun, it will be a more memorable reading experience and one that they will want to repeat! Based on the Clerc Center's Shared Reading Project.